of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connection and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must therefore acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in general congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connection between them and the state of Great Britain is, and ought to be totally dissolved, and that as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor

Among the principal causes for the rapid increase of the business of this village, it is but justice to remark, may be classed the enterprise and liberality of our merchants, who it would appear, have come to the mutual determination to retail their goods at as low rates as they can possibly be afforded. Palmyra certainly possesses equal advantages with any other village in the western part of the state, for selling goods cheap. We have been gratified to observe, that while extensive mercantile establishments are failing, almost daily, on every side of us, from the pressure of the times, there has not been a single instance of failure in this village, but on the contrary, our merchants and mechanics are pursuing the even tenor of their way, as if unconscious of the "hard times," exchanging their commodities for the hard dollars of the surrounding farmers, who are also able to bear without murmuring, the consequences of the late hard season. We think we are fully warranted in saying that those who come to Palmyra to buy goods, with the expectation of making good bargains, will not go away disappointed. The reader will perceive by the numerous advertisements in this paper, that our merchants have on hand plentiful supplies of merchandise of every description.

The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Pawtucket, R. I. has closed doors.

The following paragraph appeared in the Philadelphia American Sentinel:

"Commodore Porter.—The return of the gallant officer to his native country, from Mexico, says the Upland Union, is expected daily. It is said the President will confer upon him the appointment of minister to Mexico."

Appointments.—Royal Stewart is appointed Postmaster at Onondaga Hollow, in place of I. H. Redfield, Esq. Ebal T. Foote, Esq. Postmaster at Jamestown, in place of Labal H. Zolne, Esq. Morris H. Tucker, Esq. Postmaster at Lockport, Niagara county, in place of G. H. Boughton, Esq. removed.

Dr. A. S. GREEN an estimable man and sound republican, has been appointed postmaster at Watertown, Jefferson co. vice capt. Daniel Lee, removed.

Just about in this particular region, for some time past, much speculation has existed, concerning a pretended discovery, through superhuman means, of an ancient record, of a religious and divine nature and origin, written in ancient characters, impossible to be interpreted by any to whom the special gift has not been imparted by inspiration. It is generally known and spoken of as the "Golden Bible." Most people entertain an idea that the whole matter is the result of a gross imposition, and a grosser superstition. It is pretended that it will be published as soon as the translation is completed. Meanwhile we have been furnished with the following, which is represented to us as intended for the title page of the work—we give it as a curiosity:—

"The Book of Mormon, an account, written by the hand of Mormon upon plates, taken from the plates of Nephi:—

"Wherefore it is an abridgment of the record of the people of Nephi, and also of the Lamanites, written to the Lamanites, which are a remnant of the house of Israel; and also to Jew and Gentile, written by way of commandment, and also by the spirit of prophecy, and of revelation, written and sealed and hid up unto the Lord, that they might not be destroyed,—to come forth by the gift and power of God unto the interpretation thereof—sealed up by the hand of Moroni, and hid up unto the Lord, to come forth in due time by the way of Gentile—the interpretation thereof by the gift of God. an abridgment taken from the book of Ether.

"Also, which is a record of the people of Jared, which were scattered at the time the Lord confounded the language of the people, when they were building a tower to get to Heaven, which is to shew unto the remnant of the house of Israel how great things the Lord hath done for their fathers; and that they may know the covenants of the Lord, that they are not cast off forever; and also to the convincing of the Jew and Gentile that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God, manifesting himself unto all nations. And now, if there be fault, it be the mistake of men wherefore condemn not the things of God, that ye may be found spotless at the judgment seat of Christ.—By JOSEPH SMITH, Junior, Author and Proprietor."

Generosity of Lafayette.—This good and benevolent man has ordered his lands in the United States to be sold to discharge the debts of Mr. Monroe. Mr. Monroe has refused to permit it, but the agents have orders to proceed at all events to execute his instructions. This is the reason why Lafayette's land has lately been offered in the market.

The legislature of Massachusetts adjourned on the 12th inst. after a session of 17 days—Twenty-seven acts were passed. The rail-road bill, (says the Boston Patriot) has been deferred to the next session, contrary to the wishes and hopes of a very considerable portion of the people of the state; but still the discussion has done good: it has farther stimulated the spirit of inquiry and investigation, and that impulse has been given to public sentiment, which will carry it on to the inception and successful prosecution of a work so honorable and beneficial to the commonwealth. The subject has nothing to fear from the effect of "time and truth."

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, ex-president of the United States, arrived at New York, on Sunday evening, on his way to Massachusetts.—On Sunday, Mr. Adams performed the melancholy office of visiting the grave of his son lately deceased, who was interred at East Chester.

Clerk's Office.—The office of the Clerk of the Supreme Court, established in this village is now opened, and is kept for the present, at the office of the Clerk of this county.—Canandaigua Messenger.

Shocking Occurrence.—We are informed that a log house, in the east part of the town of Manchester, was consumed by fire on the evening of the 2d inst. and two children, one of 8 and one of 10 years of age, were consumed in it. The house was occupied by two men by the name of Keith, who were found on the arrival of the neighbors, under the fence in a state of beastly intoxication.—Ont. Repos.

Bankruptcy.—Bankruptcy is now the order of the day, and the first inquiry that is made in the morning is, "who has failed last night?" When the present embarrassed state of our markets will cease, Heaven only knows—Confidence is destroyed between man and man, and Rhode Island wears a gloomy aspect.

[Literary Subaltern.

There is now in the Hospital near New York, Pa a young woman aged about sixteen years, who is something of a prodigy. She weighs 365 lbs and measures 4 feet 9 inches in height, and 4 feet 6 inches round the waist.

Newspaper Borrowers.—The Gloucester Telegraph, says—"If your neighbor is able to pay for a paper, refuse to lend him one—2d offence, if he will not subscribe, show him the door. It is a beggarly and mean thing to be always borrowing a newspaper—a poor person is welcome to one from our office."

Expedition.—The Cleaveland Herald states that by the eclipse line of stages (owned by Messrs. Thorp and Sprague of this city, J. Parker of Utica and others) a merchant arrived at Cleaveland in three days and a half from the city of New York, a distance of about five hundred and eighty miles.

Coalition Multiplication.—The National Intelligencer, or its worthy compeer the Journal, started some weeks since, the report that three hundred post-masters had been, or were to be, removed by the present administration. There are upwards of seven thousand post-masters in the U. S.; and if the statement had been in all respects true, it could not have been considered as very extraordinary, nor as affording very strong ground for the cry of "proscription" so loudly set up by violent and proscribing partizans. But the statement was denied by the U. S. Telegraph, after an examination as to the facts. Meanwhile, the story has reached Vermont, enlarging its dimensions by the road, until a ready vender of the coalition small-wares in Rutland, exclaims of Gen. Jackson:—"He has "been in office a little more than three "months, during which time nearly four "thousand post-masters have had their "walking-papers, merely because they "were friendly to the re-election of J. "Q. Adams!"—This is certainly a liberal addition to a report originally overcharged. By the same rule of multiplication, when it reaches the friends of the late administration in Canada, the number will have swelled to some eight or ten thousand, or two or three thousand more than all the post-masters in the Union! This habit of multiplication, or enlargement, prevailed extensively among the same class of politicians during the late contest; and it is not an easy thing to throw off confirmed propensities.—Alb. Argus.

[From the N. Y. Eve. Post.]

Our Relations with France.—The letter which we published yesterday, from the secretary of state to the chairman of the committee of our citizens having claims on France, for spoliations committed on our commerce, appears to be satisfactory to the community. The appointment of a minister of the high abilities of Mr. Rives, with particular instructions on this important subject, requiring him to urge our claims in a direct and manly way, worthy of our standing as a nation, and of the undeniable justice of the claims themselves, will as we observed at the time the memorial first appeared, render the appointment of a special minister unnecessary. Let us first see what may be the fruit of a negotiation commenced and carried on under the auspices of the new administration, before we resort to final measures. We have the strongest hopes that the question will be settled soon, and satisfactorily. We have not the remotest expectation that it will lead to hostilities between the two nations. Should they take place, however, we have none of those apprehensions for the result, which some persons, in their wisdom, profess to entertain.—The navy that won so many laurels in our last war would not sustain the contest ingloriously now. We quote for the edification of the gallant officers of that navy the following passage from the Commercial of last evening, and leave it without comment of our own:—

"What could we do? Her marine [that of France] out-numbers ours ten-fold. And in the event of a war, the whole mercantile marine of Europe would start forth under the French flag as privateers-men, and sweep every rag of American canvass from the ocean."

The Directors of the Belchertown Bank Mass. have issued a circular, in which they state that the resources of the bank are fully equal to all demands which can be brought against it; and from conversation with a gentleman well acquainted with its concerns, and in no way interested, we have reason to believe this statement is correct. The "run" was occasioned by the suspension of redeeming its bills at Boston.

One good effect will undoubtedly result from these movements, in connection with the late failures, by causing other banks to keep their circulation within reasonable limits.—N. Y. Jour. of Commerce.

4TH OF JULY, 1829.

The 53d Anniversary of American Independence will be celebrated at Vienna, in the town of Phelps.

An Oration will be delivered at the Presbyterian Meeting-House, attended with the reading of the Declaration of Independence and other suitable exercises. Several Military Companies will attend. The procession will be formed at 11 o'clock A. M. under the direction of Lieut. Col. Stearns, Marshal and Lieut. Goff, assistant Marshal.

The citizens of the neighboring towns are respectfully invited to attend, and unite with us in testifying our veneration for the day which made us a Free and Independent Nation.
